Palm Sunday With Friends Like These...

This year, we hear the Passion from the gospel of Mark. One thing unique about this reading is the emphasis on Jesus being abandoned by his disciples. First, the leaders of the disciples, Peter, James, and John, cannot even support Jesus in his agony in the garden: They fall asleep, three times. Then there is Judas, who seeks out the chief priests to make a deal with them, Peter, who denies Jesus three times, and the disciples who flee when he is arrested. The crowds who cried, "Hosanna!" a few days before, now call for him to be crucified. Even Simon the Cyrenian had to be forced to help carry the cross.

What does this tell us? With friends like these, who needs enemies? No, the point is that Jesus died specifically for these people, not because they were once friends, but because they were sinners, who needed Jesus. All but one of them ended up as saints. And the one who didn't was Judas, who gave up on Jesus, instead of coming back to him for forgiveness. When we find ourselves in sin, when we think that everything we do is wrong, or when we think we can't possibly deserve to be loved by God—that is when God can help us, if we just stop hating ourselves and start loving and trusting the Lord. It is not the time to pretend we have avoided the big sins, or to brag about some of the good we may have done. Instead of trying to convince God that we deserve his mercy, simply agree that you need his help. God loves sinners who know they need his forgiveness and don't deserve it.

But maybe you have already been forgiven and wonder what's next. Remember the ones you would not expect to support Jesus: The centurion supervising his crucifixion proclaims him Son of God. A member of the Sanhedrin gives Jesus a burial place. The women who were there to the end. These were people who did not claim to be worthy, just did what they could to show their love. Ask Jesus each morning when you wake up, "What can I do for you today?" and do what you can.

Domingo de Ramos Con amigos como estos...

Este año escuchamos la Pasión del evangelio de Marcos. Algo único de esta lectura es el énfasis en el abandono de Jesús por sus discípulos. Primero, los líderes de los discípulos, Pedro, Santiago y Juan, ni siquiera pueden apoyar a Jesús en su agonía en el huerto. Se quedan dormidos tres veces. Luego, Judas busca a los sumos sacerdotes para hacer un trato con ellos, Pedro niega a Jesús tres veces, y los discípulos huyen cuando es arrestado. Las multitudes gritaban "¡Hosanna!" unos días antes y ahora piden que lo crucifiquen. Incluso Simón el Cireneo tuvo que ser obligado a ayudarlo a llevar la cruz.

¿Qué nos dice todo esto? Que con amigos como éstos, ¿quién necesita enemigos? No, el punto es que Jesús murió específicamente por estas personas, no porque alguna vez fueran amigos, sino porque eran pecadores y necesitaban a Jesús. Todos menos uno terminaron siendo santos. Y el que no lo hizo fue Judas, quien perdió la confianza en Jesús, en lugar de volver a él en busca de perdón. Cuando nos encontramos en pecado, cuando pensamos que todo lo que hacemos está mal, o cuando pensamos que no podemos merecer ser amados por Dios, ahí es cuando Dios puede ayudarnos, si simplemente dejamos de odiarnos a nosotros mismos y comenzamos a amar y confiar en el Señor. No es el momento de fingir que hemos evitado los grandes pecados ni de presumir de algo bueno que hayamos hecho. En lugar de intentar convencer a Dios de que merecemos su misericordia, simplemente acepta que necesitas su ayuda. Dios ama a los pecadores que saben que necesitan su perdón y no lo merecen.

Pero tal vez ya hayas sido perdonado y te preguntes qué sigue. Acuérdate de los menos esperados de apoyar a Jesús: el centurión que supervisó su crucifixión lo proclama Hijo de Dios. Un miembro del Sanedrín le da a Jesús un lugar de sepultura. Las mujeres que estuvieron ahí hasta el final. Eran personas que no decían ser dignas, simplemente hacían lo que podían para mostrar su amor. Pregúntale a Jesús cada mañana al despertar: "¿Qué puedo hacer por ti hoy?" y haz lo que puedas.

Acuérdate Niño Santo que jamás se oyó decir qué alguno haya implorado sin tu auxilio recibir. Por eso con fe y confianza, humilde y arrepentido, lleno de amor y esperanza, este favor yo te pido

Pedir la gracia que se desea y decir siete veces:

DIVINO NIÑO JESUS BENDICENOS.

Novena of Confidence to the Divine Infant Jesus

O gentle Infant Jesus, light of my life. You are the consolation of all Christians. I put in your holy hands this particular grace that I need. Our Father...

Because You know all my sorrows, I entrust them to you. Sweet Jesus, give your peace to all those who are confused and relief to my heart. Hail Mary...

I realize I do not deserve your love. Nevertheless, I come to you because you are the only begotten Son of God and the help of all Christians. Glory be...

Remember O Holy Infant that none have recourse to you in vain. Therefore I beg this favor of you with faith and confidence, with humility and repentance, full of hope and love.

Ask the favor you need and pray seven times:
