Third Sunday of Lent

As we are now well into Lent, we can take a look at what it means to turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel. A good place to start would be the Ten Commandments. The reading from Exodus presents us with one of the first listings of the Commandments. In this passage, God explains some of the laws to show how serious they are. For the first one, God includes making images to be used for worship. Now you might jump to the conclusion that all the statues and crucifixes in our churches must be destroyed. Not so.

In the days of Moses, people of other cultures made images of their gods and declared that the image was the god, and so should be worshipped. The Lord wanted his people to remember that God cannot be limited to an image or idea. That is still true today. Our images and statues are meant to help us pray to God, not to that work of art. In that sense, they are no worse than using a beautiful sunset or mountain scene to help you pray.

On the other hand, some people give a superstitious meaning to religious articles. Burying a statue to help sell your house could be one example. If you want to ask for a favor from God, just ask Him. God is much more likely to listen to a sincere prayer than a superstitious action.

The reason God gives for the first commandment is that he is a passionate God, who has chosen the Israelites to be his people. When he punishes sin, he allows the effect of our bad choices to hurt us and those around us. But when we repent and change our ways, his love is everlasting.

God also emphasizes some commands by duplicating them. He tells us not to steal from others, and also not to plan to steal from our neighbor. The same with adultery: Planning it is just as bad as doing it. Taking his name in vain originally meant perjuring yourself after taking an oath to tell the truth. That is similar to the eighth commandment about false witness.

Jesus simplified all these commands when he reminds us to love God with all your heart and love your neighbor as yourself. Let's remember that as we turn away from sin to serving God better during Lent .

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma

Como ya han pasado unas semanas de la Cuaresma, podemos echar un vistazo a lo que significa alejarse del pecado y ser fiel al Evangelio. Un buen lugar para empezar serían los Diez Mandamientos. La lectura del Éxodo nos presenta una de las primeras listas de los Mandamientos. En este pasaje, Dios explica algunas leyes para mostrar cuán serias son. En el primero, Dios incluye hacer imágenes para adorarlas. Ahora, se podría llegar a la conclusión de que todas las estatuas y crucifijos dentro de las iglesias deben ser destruidos. No es así.

En los días de Moisés, la gente de otras culturas hacía imágenes de sus dioses y declaraba que esa imagen era el dios y debería ser adorada. El Señor quería que su pueblo se acordara que Dios no puede limitarse a una imagen o una idea. Eso sigue siendo cierto hoy en día. Las imágenes y estatuas están hechas para ayudarnos a orar a Dios, no a esa obra de arte. En ese sentido, es semejante a utilizar una hermosa puesta de sol o una escena de montaña para ayudarte a orar.

Por otro lado, algunas personas dan un significado supersticioso a los artículos religiosos. Un ejemplo podría ser enterrar una estatua para ayudarte a vender tu casa. Si quieres pedirle un favor a Dios, sólo pídeselo. Es mucho más probable que Dios escuche una oración sincera que una acción supersticiosa.

La razón que Dios da para el primer mandamiento es que él es un Dios apasionado, que ha elegido a los israelitas para que sean su pueblo. Cuando castiga el pecado, permite que el efecto de nuestras malas decisiones nos haga daño a nosotros y a quienes nos rodean. Pero cuando nos arrepentimos y cambiamos de conducta, su amor es eterno.

Dios también enfatiza algunos mandamientos repitiéndolos. Nos dice que no robemos a los demás y que tampoco planeemos robarle a nuestro prójimo. Lo mismo ocurre con el adulterio, planearlo es tan malo como hacerlo. Tomar su nombre en vano originalmente significaba cometer perjurio después de jurar decir la verdad. Esto es semejante al octavo mandamiento sobre dar testimonio falso.

Jesús simplificó todos estos mandamientos cuando nos recuerda amar a Dios con todo el corazón y amar al prójimo como a uno mismo. Recordemos eso mientras nos alejamos del pecado para servir mejor a Dios durante la Cuaresma.

Devoción al Divino Niño Jesús / Devotion to the Divine Infant Jesus

Novena de la Confianza al Divino Niño Jesús

Niño amable de mi vida. Consuelo de los cristianos. La gracia que necesito pongo en tus benditas manos. Padre nuestro...

Tú que sabes mis pesares pues todos te los confío da la paz a los turbados y alivio al corazón mío. Dios te salve María...

Y aunque tu amor no merezco, no recurriré a ti en vano pues tu eres hijo de Dios y auxilio de los Cristianos. Gloria al Padre...

Acuérdate Niño Santo que jamás se oyó decir qué alguno haya implorado sin tu auxilio recibir. Por eso con fe y confianza, humilde y arrepentido, lleno de amor y esperanza, este favor yo te pido

Pedir la gracia que se desea y decir siete veces:

DIVINO NIÑO JESUS BENDICENOS.

Novena of Confidence to the Divine Infant Jesus

O gentle Infant Jesus, light of my life. You are the consolation of all Christians. I put in your holy hands this particular grace that I need. Our Father...

Because You know all my sorrows, I entrust them to you. Sweet Jesus, give your peace to all those who are confused and relief to my heart. Hail Mary...

I realize I do not deserve your love. Nevertheless, I come to you because you are the only begotten Son of God and the help of all Christians. Glory be...

Remember O Holy Infant that none have recourse to you in vain. Therefore I beg this favor of you with faith and confidence, with humility and repentance, full of hope and love.

Ask the favor you need and pray seven times:

DIVINE INFANT JESUS BLESS US.
